NOVEMBER 17-20

Love Gets A Room – 11am Chicago Premiere

A group of Jewish actors manage to stage a lively musical comedy in Nazi-occupied Poland during World War II.

March '68 – Online Only

Two young students fall in love in the midst of social turmoil and Jewish discrimination in 1960's Warsaw. While the young lovers are uninterested in politics, they participate in a protest rally at the university where they discover freedom comes at a high price.

Haute Couture – 1:30pm Chicago Premiere

A Jewish seamstress in Paris gets her handbag stolen in the metro. Instead of calling the police, she decides to take care of the 20-year-old thief.

JAN. 26-29: FILMS INCLUDE The Conference

On January 20, 1942, leading representatives of the German Nazi regime met in a villa for a meeting that went down in history as the Wannsee Conference, at which the systematic murder of 11 million Jews was decided.

iMordecai – 4pm Chicago Premiere

Comedy starring Judd Hirsch and Carol Kane. Based on a true story of a holocaust survivor, born and raised in a different time, who must now face the realities of the modern world – including an iPhone. Includes live post film discussion with film Director Marvin Samel.

FEB. 23-26: FILMS INCLUDE Farewell Mr. Haffmann

In Paris 1941, François works for Mr. Haffmann, a Jewish jeweler. Under the German occupation, employer and employee are forced to strike a deal, upending the fate of all concerned.
